V.1. Read the passage, and decide whether the statements that follow are True or False : (1pt)

Language learners learn words in different ways. Some learners make a list and put into it the meanings of new words in their mother tongue, and try to learn them by heart. However, others do not. Instead, they write one or two example sentences with each new word in order to remember words better, some learners even write each word and its use in a small piece of paper and stick it somewhere in their house so as to learn it at any time. Many language learners do not try to learn all new words they want to learn. This helps them remember important words.

V. Reading Comprehension : (2,5pts)

V.1. Read the passage, and decide whether the statements that follow are True or False : (1pt)

Since the 1990s, there has been an important change in Ho Chi Minh City.: the growth of shopping centers. Today we find many shopping centers on the main streets of residential areas. A large shopping center, or mall, usually has about 50 to 100 stores of all kinds and a large parking lot for vehicles. Most malls have 2 or more department stores that sell everything you can imagine: clothes, toys, cameras, sports equipments, etc.... These department stores also sell furniture and household appliances. Some shopping centers have supermarkets that sell food and a lot of things for the home.
