Nga: It's my birthday on Sunday. Would you like to come to my house for lunch?

Lan: Yes, I'd love to. What time?

Nga: At one o'clock.

Lan: I'll be there.

Nga: I'll see you on Sunday.

Nga: After lunch, we're going to see a movie. Will you join us?

Lan: I'm not sure. I will call you tomorrow.

Nga: OK.

Lan: Thanks for inviting me.

Nga: It's my pleasure.

Nga: What about you, Hoa? Would you like to come, too?

Hoa: I'd love to, but I'm going to a wedding on Sunday.

Nga: That's too bad.

Hoa: Sorry, I can't come. Thanks anyway.

Nga: You're welcome.

Community Service

People are living longer so there are more elderly people. Many young people are doing community service. They help elderly people. They do their shopping. They do their housework. They clean their yards. They even paint their houses.

Some young people work as hospital volunteers. In America, they are called 'candy stripers' because of the striped pink and white uniform they wear. Others are concerned about the environment and work on neighborhood clean-up campaigns.

Class discussion.

- a) How do some teenagers help the community?
- b) How do Vietnamese teenagers help the community?
